

Photos of Jail Museum Entry

A handicapped parking spot is located approximately 20 feet from the Museum's front entrance on E. 5th Street

There are four steps leading from the sidewalk to the front porch of the Jail Museum.

The front door has an approx. 3-inch "step-up". The front entry door(s) can both be opened for better access / assistance to enter the Museum.

The door frame of the front door has a small "lip" on the inside of the entryway.

The 2nd floor of the Sheriff's Residence is accessed by climbing the curved stairway pictured above.

There is a small landing in the middle.

Total of 18 steps.

Photo will be uploaded soon

To access the 2nd and 3rd floor of the Jail exhibits, visitors must climb the stairway pictured above.

12 steps to 2nd Floor. Additional 6 steps to 3rd Floor.

The entry into various rooms of the Jail exhibit have small elevation differences. Caution is Advised.
